Get Involved

Every day, 22 children are confirmed victims of child abuse and neglect in Georgia. Court Appointed Special Advocates help change these children's stories by advocating for their best interests. Throughout Lumpkin, Towns, Union, & White Counties CASA volunteers work to ensure our most vulnerable children have a chance for a better life.

CASA volunteers are everyday heroes from all walks of life who advocate for the best interests of children in foster care from their own community. With a CASA volunteer, a child is twice as likely to find a safe, permanent home and half as likely to re-enter the child welfare system.

Even if you can't serve as a child advocate, you can still help at our special events, or serve on our board or a committee. You can also follow us on social media or connect with us online.
